Greetings!

On behalf of the Washington State Federation of Democratic Women it is my pleasure to share the initial call to the January 27th, 2018 Quarterly meeting in Bellingham, Washington.

We will meet in conjunction with the Washington State Democratic Central Committee and they request preregistration if you plan to attend – registration link here. A number of trainings will be offered during the day including: Consent Culture Workshops, Racial Equity Workshops, Organizing and Fundraising – please see the attachments for further details. The Women's Caucus will meet at 7:00 PM after the Federation Meeting.

Our WSFDW meeting goals are grounded in developing the WSFDW 2018 Priorities including:

Fostering the future - mentorship, internship and training
2018 Legislative and Issues Action
Blue Lobby Day, February 2018
Planned Parenthood Legislative Action partnership
Grow your Own - how to join or start a Local WSFDW Chapter

In the next few weeks the Agenda will be finalized and shared, some discussion topics have included: National and Regional collaboration, updating the Endorsement Policy, Caucus/Council and Code of Conduct proposals and resolutions – take a minute to share your thoughts -click here. Please do ask questions before the meeting to make best use of our time together in Bellingham.

In the meantime, you can take these actions:

Rich representation from every section of the state is vital to our continued success. Help set the course, share lessons learned and your thoughts on the one-year anniversary of the Historic Women's March of Jan 21, 2017.

I am honored to serve as your president and look forward to seeing you in Bellingham on January 27th!

In partnership,

Carin Chase
President, Washington State Federation of Democratic Women
